

CARE INSTRUCTIONS

This memorandum outlines our wishes regarding the care of our children. Please consider the guidance below to be binding. If circumstances make a particular wish overly difficult or impossible, please ensure that you act within the spirit of these guidelines.

OUR VALUES

We've chosen you as our children's guardian because of our shared values. We've listed the values most important to us below and desire that you continue to model these values for our children.

IMPORTANT RELATIONSHIPS

The following family members and friends are extremely important to us and we desire that they remain meaningfully present in our children's lives.

RELIGION

We wish that our children continue to be raised in the following religious tradition:

In keeping with that tradition, we specifically desire the following:

FINANCIAL PRIORITIES

Below are the rankings of our financial priorities. Please utilize the financial resources we've left for the children according to these priorities.
